Prospective Page, in a few sentences, please tell us why you would like to be accepted into the House Page Program:

Provided Meal: A Chick-fil-A lunch is provided to each Page by the House of Representatives. If there are dietary needs that prevent the Page from eating the provided lunch, please provide a lunch as alternate/vegetarian lunches are not provided. If needed, there is a snack bar located on the first floor of the Capitol.

Free Speech Disclaimer: The courts have rules that many of the areas in the Georgia State Capitol are places where political speech is allowed. This may mean that profanity or other speech that one might find offensive could occur in the presence of the Page.

Photography Release: The House of Representatives streams online the action of the floor of the House and photos of the action are taken and posted online. Pages will be captured in the video and photos.

How to apply:

- By visiting www.openstates.org and entering your address into the search bar you will be able to find your state representative.
- Once you know your representative's name, visit www.house.ga.gov and click on the Representative tab to locate your representative's State Capitol office information and find their administrative assistant's email address.
- Complete this form and email it to your representative's administrative assistant.
- After your interest form has been reviewed and approved by your sponsoring representative, you will be contacted by your representative's office with more information.
